Offense charged:

Supervised Release Violation

Date of Detention Hearing: July 13, 2007

The Court, having conducted a detention hearing pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f), and based upon the factual findings and statement of reasons for detention hereafter set forth, finds that no condition or combination of conditions which defendant can meet will reasonably assure the appearance of defendant as required and the safety of other persons and the community.

FINDINGS OF FACT AND STATEMENT OF REASONS FOR DETENTION

1. Defendant is charged in the Eastern District of Washington

(Case No.: 2-03CR00259-001) with violating the conditions of supervised release, specifically by allegedly absconding from supervision on April 4, 2007 by failing to return to a residential reentry center (halfway house) in Seattle, Washington. Defendant has waived an identity hearing and an order of transfer has been signed by this Court.

2. There are currently no halfway house beds available in either Seattle or Tacoma. Defendant has no other residence address in this District. He is not currently employed.

3. Defendant's criminal history includes warrant activity for failures to appear and also shows prior violations of supervision. Defendant tested positive for marijuana while on community supervision with the Washington State Department of Corrections and failed to comply with a substance abuse evaluation. There is an active warrant from Spokane County Superior Court for community corrections violations which is extraditable nationally.

4. Defendant poses a risk of nonappearance due to allegedly absconding from supervision, a history of failing to comply with court orders and with supervision, lack of stable residence, a past conviction for Attempt to Elude, and an active warrant. He poses a risk of danger due to criminal history which includes a conviction for felon in possession of a firearm.

5. There does not appear to be any condition or combination of conditions that will reasonably assure the defendant's appearance at future Court hearings while addressing the danger to other persons or the community.

It is therefore ORDERED:

- (1) Defendant shall be detained pending trial and committed to the custody of the Attorney General for confinement in a correction facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody

01 pending appeal;

02 (2) Defendant shall be afforded reasonable opportunity for private consultation with 03 counsel;

04 (3) On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the 05 Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility in which defendant is 06 confined shall deliver the defendant to a United States Marshal for the purpose of 07 an appearance in connection with a court proceeding; and

08 (4) The clerk shall direct copies of this Order to counsel for the United States, to
09 counsel for the defendant, to the United States Marshal, and to the United States
10 Pretrial Services Officer.

11 DATED this 13th day of July, 2007.
